

WEAK HITTING BY SPAULDING

Local High School Boys Powerless Before Sylvester of Johnson

ONLY TWO HITS MADE;
VISITORS WON, 6 TO 1

Wilkin, a Newcomer, Was Tried Out in Box by Spaulding

Spaulding dropped another game of her 1916 schedule Saturday afternoon to Johnson high school. The game was played on Spaulding's home grounds and resulted in a score of 6 to 1.

Nichols, Spaulding's first string pitcher, had pitched a hard game against Burlington on Friday and Wilkin, a promising looking youngster but one who has had practically no experience in the box, was put in. A series of errors in the first inning made things look worse for the new man than they really were and on the whole the team behind Wilkin failed to give him the support which would have turned many of the hits scored against him into putouts. Nichols was finally put in at the beginning of the sixth and though he showed the effects of his game before he managed to last the remaining four innings.

Johnson started off with two runs in the first inning, both of which might easily have been prevented had Ricciardi been playing up to his usual form. The fifty little Spaulding shortstop had a bad spell in the first part of the game and allowed four grass cutters to go through him. Gony's hit allowed Westover and Bailey to score.

The second inning was uneventful as far as scoring was concerned for both sides, but in the third Johnson and Spaulding each secured a run. Bailey for the former team slammed a double over the road in left field, stole third and came home on Gony's single. McHugh for Spaulding was hit by a pitched ball, stole second and scored on Osoia's long drive. This was the only time that Spaulding scored although Sylvester got a hit wobbly in the fifth and the hopeful Spaulding fans thought he was going up after he had walked the second and third men up. He steadied down, however, and the good backing up which his team gave him pulled him out of the hole.

Johnson scored twice in the fifth, a hit by Mobbs, a double by Gony and a passed ball by McHugh giving them the opportunities. Another score for the visitors came in the ninth when Nye got a hit and came home on Mobbs' single. The Johnson team are a bunch of heavy hitters and their outfield is one of the best in the state for high school teams.

AGED GRANDMOTHER

So Weak She Could Hardly Stand—Made
Strong by Vinol

Right here in Barre we have seen such excellent results from Vinol that it is a pleasure to know it is doing so much good for old people in other parts of the country.

Woodbridge, N. J.—"My grandma was recovering from the grippe and was so weak she could hardly stand, and as she keeps house for my father and myself, she could not get around at all. She had taken cod liver oil and many other medicines, but nothing seemed to do her any good. At last we heard of Vinol and tried it, and grandma commenced to feel better right away, and got strong very soon, so she gets around as well as ever. We all praise Vinol, for it is a splendid medicine." Myrtle H. Bunn.

The reason Vinol is so successful in restoring strength to the aged is because of the rare combination of tonic iron, the curative medicinal extracts of fresh cod's livers, beef peptone and mild native wine. It supplies iron to the blood, quickens the appetite, aids digestion, promotes proper assimilation of food, and enriches the blood, and brings back the strength of renewed health.

HAVE PURE BLOOD

Hood's Sarsaparilla Makes Pure, Rich,
Red Blood

Your heart works night and day without a pause. It is the principal organ of the circulation of your blood. It is of the utmost importance that it should do its work well. The quality and quantity of your blood have much to do with its action. If this fluid is pure and abundant, your heart and other vital organs act with more energy than when it is defective in quality or deficient in quantity.

Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the blood pure and abundant. It is the one old reliable medicine, that has been sold for forty years, for purifying the blood. There is no better blood remedy, appetizer, stomach tonic. It embodies the careful training, experience and skill of Mr. Hood, a pharmacist for fifty years, in its quality and power to cure.—Adv.

Depeters who predicted that he was pitching too hard in the first part of the game found that they had greatly misjudged his staying qualities. The summary:

DAVIDSON STARRED

Pitched and Batted Well for Goddard
Against St. Peter's in Rutland.

Rutland, May 8.—In its second appearance before Rutland fans the strong Goddard seminary team of Barre in a one-sided game defeated the St. Peter's nine Saturday afternoon by the score of 9 to 1. The game, however, was not so uninteresting as the score would indicate. The fine fielding displayed by the visitors throughout the game and by St. Peter's at times served to liven the contest.

St. Peter's started in as if they intended to win, scoring their only run in the first inning and blanking Goddard until the third.

The visitors got their eye on the ball in that round and tied up the game. They gathered in one in the fourth and fifth also. A great streak of batting, including a home run by Davidson gave them six runs, the team batting around in this inning. There was never any doubt about the result of the game after this inning.

The St. Peter's boys couldn't squeeze in another run after the first, although they had a good chance in the ninth when they got men on second and third with one man out. The score producing hit was not forthcoming, however, and the game ended with Goddard still eight runs to the good.

COLLEGE BOYS NO "ARGUMENT"

Italian A. C. Had Little Difficulty with Dartmouth Independents

BATTED WILLARD
QUITE HEAVILY

Crowd Disappointed Over
10 to 3 Game at Berlin St.

Because its sum-total of errors fell short of that of its adversary, because its manner of playing the game preserved more of the elementary earmarks of the great national pastime and then again for the reason that more native ability was lined up on its side, the Italian Athletic club defeated the Dartmouth Independents at the Berlin street grounds Saturday afternoon by the score of 10 to 3. It wasn't a baseball game after the fashion of contests that have been waged on the north-end plot offtimes in the past, but there were times when the spectator must have felt, however faintly, that something akin to baseball was in progress.

Sundry and divers digits given below will tell the story of the clash far more eloquently than words. To attempt to describe the meeting of the amalgamated I. A. C. B. A. C. team with the outlanders is too much like collecting souvenirs of something that never happened. Of course the home boys went the whole way with the loosely knit contingent from Hanover, but it was far from being real sport. In his annual comeback specialty Joe Weafer, with the same side-kick of yore, Joe Comoli, had the visitors standing on their heads in every reel. Fans welcomed a number of old-time faces back in the Italian lineup and the old players performed quite as well, perhaps, as one might expect. Certainly, they looked sights better than the alleged team from the college in the woods, and that isn't saying too much.

Brief Decisions.

While the occasion is ripe the I. A. C. management should adopt the policy of requiring a guarantee from out-of-town teams that they can uncover something worth while. As the beginning of what will probably be a long schedule for the Italian club, it left a bad impression among fans who laid down their change at the gate.

Prof. Will T. Maiden of Cabot was back in I. A. C. togs for a day. Will tapped the onion for two consecutive triples and really didn't look the pedagog at all as he tripped lightly around the paths.

Pat Willard has a reputation to recover. Sandlot itching was the brand he offered Saturday.

Jack Clary of Manchester, N. H., is to sojourn here this season, which means a whole lot for the I. A. C.

Right now why wouldn't it be a capital idea for the I. A. C. and B. A. C. to get together and support one team this year. Old sores have been healed, it seems, and no move that has been made in recent years could compare with the consolidation. Beyond a doubt the alliance would find immediate favor with the fans, if the bleacher comment of Saturday counts as an indication.

Cousins pulled down a difficult fly in the second inning.

Johnson, Stuart and Brown played with their customary dash.

Outfielder Bottigi was at the helm Saturday.

Joe Weafer's injury in the eighth inning was painful enough, but not exactly serious. He had earned the right to retire, with the game well in hand at that stage.

Touazzi, Smith and Nicora were some of the substitutions made in the middle stages. "Waco" got a big hand when he strode to bat for the first time. "Nig" Smith and Nicora acquitted themselves creditably.

Fox, Lapierre and Hutchinson figured in a pretty double in the sixth. A fine opening for an exact duplicate of the same double in the seventh found Lapierre about as animated as the bronze statue of Johnnie Evers in the market place at Troy.

A couple of three-ply bingles for Brown. The B. A. C. outfielder is as wily as ever on the paths.

Mendez seems to have a good many of the qualities that stamp a man as a cool and reliable hurler.

The I. A. C. ground, the last spot of terra firma in Washington county to throw off the garb of winter, was considerably moist in places. Much has been accomplished by the club in the way of improving the field, however, and more improvements are projected.

Bob Wright was drafted from the stands to hold the indicator. Wright and Ricciardi made a good time.

Round two was wholly disastrous to the Dartmouth cause and after that the game lost much of its interest.

Goddard celebrated May 6 in 1915 by defeating St. Michael's, 10 to 3.

CLOSE GAME AT WATERBURY.

Town Team Administered First Defeat
to High School, 2 to 1.

Waterbury, May 8.—Saturday afternoon in a hotly contested 10-inning game, the Waterbury high school baseball team lost its first game of the season to the Waterbury Athletic club, by a score of 2 to 1. It was a pitchers' battle from start to finish. Neither side scored until the first of the eighth, when Starr, for the W. A. C., scored on Dubey's single. In the last of the ninth, Grandfield hit Starr for two bases, stole third and came home on a sacrifice hit by Richard Luce, tying the score. But then in the 10th, St. Louis, for W. A. C., scored their winning run.

The score by innings was as follows:

New York, May 8.—Three thousand employees in the men's clothing industry at New York who went on strike several days ago will return to work to-day and a general strike affecting 75,000 employees in the same industry, which was threatened, has been averted, it was announced Saturday night.

You can't "spell-bind" many men into liking what they dislike —every man's taste is his own

IF A MANUFACTURER in his advertising tells you (truthfully, as he believes) that he has the "best tasting cigarette in the world" and you believe him, you probably try his cigarette. It may be a very good cigarette. But his over-enthusiasm has led you to expect something almost impossible. You light that cigarette and—

Well, there's a good chance that you're disappointed. It may not be the fault of the cigarette. The cigarette may be mighty good. But you've been led to expect too much. You've been "over-sold."

And besides, tastes differ—who can tell what cigarette will best please your taste before you try it?

That's why we leave the taste of Fatimas entirely up to you. We believe you will like them; but you may not.

To be sure, most men like the taste of Fatimas better than any other cigarette they ever smoked. Figures indicate that. More

Fatimas are sold than any other cigarette in the world costing over 5c.

But the taste isn't all.

If you do like Fatimas' taste as well as these thousands and thousands of other men do, you'll find a second reason for sticking to them for good. And that reason is that Fatimas will give you cigarette-comfort at all times. This is why they have won the name of being as SENSIBLE a cigarette as a man can find anywhere.

They are comfortable to the throat and tongue. You'll never experience any "sandpaper tickle" or "hotness" in the cool-smoking Turkish blend of Fatimas.

And Fatimas can be smoked more freely than any other cigarette we know of without leaving any mean after-feeling, as some less skillfully blended cigarettes do. If you have never smoked Fatimas—you should try them.
